Steve Atkinson 1957 - 2016

Cheltenham Motor Club is very sad to announce the recent passing of Steve Atkinson following a long illness. Steve was a keen competitor as well as organiser. He ran the first single venue rally for the Club at Stoke Orchard back in the late 70s, one of the first events of this type to be held in the UK. He then changed venue to Long Marston Airfield before moving the event to Down Ampney where it continues to this day. It would take too long to list all of Steve's motoring exploits but it is fair to say that there are many in the current rallying world who have very fond memories of Steve for a variety of reasons. Steve is survived by his wife Sue and daughters Kirsty, Tori and Georgina and our thoughts are with them at this time.

In Steve's memory, Cheltenham Motor Club will be awarding the Spirit of the Rally Award in his name.
